GETTING STARTED

How to Use This Guide

This guide covers statewide Kansas resources: the government agencies, hotlines, and courts that serve every county. Each section also tells you how to find the right local office for your specific county.

Start here: Kansas has a Protection From Stalking order that any stalking victim can request, regardless of their relationship to the stalker.

Before you call: have your documentation ready — dates, what happened, any messages or photos saved, and whether a report has already been filed elsewhere.

If you're in danger: call 911 first. Every other number in this guide is for follow-up support, not emergency response.

What's inside

- Emergency & immediate-danger contacts
- Statewide Kansas agencies (Attorney General Crime Victims Compensation Board, Victim Services Division)
- Reporting to local police & county sheriffs
- Domestic violence protective orders explained
- Step-by-step: filing a report & getting a protective order
- Specialized support (child abuse, elder abuse, civil rights)
- A one-page master contact sheet

Legal notice: This guide offers general information for educational purposes and is not legal advice. Phone numbers, addresses, and procedures for Kansas state and local agencies were verified at time of writing but can change — confirm current details with the agency directly. Stalking.org is not affiliated with any agency listed and is not a crisis service. If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

ACT NOW

Emergency & Immediate Danger

If a stalker is near you right now, threatening you, or has violated a protection order, these are your first calls — before anything else in this guide.

Emergency — Police, Fire, Medical

911

Call if you are in immediate danger, right now.

Kansas Highway Patrol (find your local troop)

Via ks.gov/highway-patrol

For non-emergency matters outside local police jurisdiction.

Kansas VINE (offender custody notification)

Via your county attorney's office

Many Kansas counties participate in the VINE notification program.

Can't speak safely? In areas where Text-to-911 is supported, you can text instead of calling — check with your mobile carrier or alea.gov for coverage in your county.

LOCAL POLICE

● Reporting to Local Police & Sheriffs

Stalking is usually reported to the police department in the city where you live or work, or to your county sheriff outside city limits.

Your local police department (non-emergency line)Dial 911, or search “[your city] police non-emergency”

Stalking can be reported at any city police department or county sheriff's office.

Your county sheriff's officeVaries by county

Primary law enforcement in unincorporated parts of Kansas.

Your county or district courtFind yours via kscourts.org

File a Protection From Stalking (PFS) order — any stalking victim is eligible, regardless of relationship to the stalker.

Good to know: you can file a report at any police department, not only the one nearest the stalker. Ask for the officer's name, a complaint or case number, and how to follow up.

COURTS

Protection From Stalking (PFS) Order

What it is: a civil court order available to any victim of stalking in Kansas, regardless of your relationship to the stalker.

Protection From Abuse (PFA): used instead when the stalker is a spouse, former spouse, or other household or family member.

Advice from the AG's office: orders tend to work best when requested as soon as the stalking behavior begins, and in places where violations are taken seriously by law enforcement.

Kansas Courts

Official PFS and PFA forms are available through your county district court.

Step-by-Step: What to Expect

● Filing a Police Report

- 1 Go to any police department or county sheriff's office — you do not have to go to the one nearest the stalker.
- 2 Ask to speak with an officer and say clearly that you want to report stalking or harassment.
- 3 Bring your documentation: dates, messages, photos, and names of any witnesses.
- 4 Ask for the report's complaint number before you leave, and request a copy if possible.
- 5 Ask about victim assistance resources — many departments have a victim advocate or can refer you to ACADV.

● Getting a PFS Order

- 1 Go to your county or district court and ask for a Protection From Stalking petition.
- 2 Keep a log of all stalking behavior beforehand if you can — dates, descriptions, phone calls, and messages.
- 3 File the petition with the court clerk.
- 4 A judge can issue a temporary order quickly, often without the other party present.
- 5 The order is served on the other party by law enforcement — keep a copy with you, at home, and at work.
