GETTING STARTED

How to Use This Guide

This guide covers statewide Nebraska resources: the government agencies, hotlines, and courts that serve every county. Each section also tells you how to find the right local office near you.

Start here: Nebraska's Harassment Protection Order is not relationship dependent and covers being stalked, followed, or detained by anyone.

Before you call: have your documentation ready — dates, what happened, any messages or photos saved, and whether a report has already been filed elsewhere.

If you're in danger: call 911 first. Every other number in this guide is for follow-up support, not emergency response.

What's inside

- Emergency & immediate-danger contacts
- Statewide Nebraska agencies (Crime Victim's Reparations, Victim Advocacy Program, Judicial Branch Self-Help)
- Reporting to local police & county sheriffs
- Domestic violence protective orders explained
- Step-by-step: filing a report & getting a protective order
- Specialized support (child abuse, elder abuse, civil rights)
- A one-page master contact sheet

Legal notice: This guide offers general information for educational purposes and is not legal advice. Phone numbers, addresses, and procedures for Nebraska state and local agencies were verified at time of writing but can change — confirm current details with the agency directly. Stalking.org is not affiliated with any agency listed and is not a crisis service. If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

Emergency & Immediate Danger

If a stalker is near you right now, threatening you, or has violated a protection order, these are your first calls — before anything else in this guide.

Emergency — Police, Fire, Medical

911

Call if you are in immediate danger, right now.

Nebraska State Patrol (find your local troop)

Via statepatrol.nebraska.gov

For non-emergency matters outside local police jurisdiction.

NEVCAP — Nebraska Victims of Crime Alert Portal

Via nevcap.nebraska.gov

Free notification if a stalker is released from jail or prison.

Can't speak safely? In areas where Text-to-911 is supported, you can text instead of calling — check with your mobile carrier or alea.gov for coverage in your county.

LOCAL POLICE

● Reporting to Local Police & Sheriffs

Stalking is usually reported to the police department in the city where you live or work, or to your county sheriff outside city limits.

Your local police department (non-emergency line)Dial 911, or search “[your city] police non-emergency”

Stalking can be reported at any city police department or county sheriff's office.

Your county sheriff's officeVaries by county

Primary law enforcement in unincorporated parts of Nebraska.

Your District CourtFind yours via supremecourt.nebraska.gov

File a Harassment Protection Order for stalking, following, or harassment — not relationship dependent.

Good to know: you can file a report at any police department, not only the one nearest the stalker. Ask for the officer's name, a complaint or case number, and how to follow up.

Protection Orders in Nebraska

Harassment Protection Order: not relationship dependent — for being stalked, followed, detained, or harassed by anyone.

Domestic Abuse Protection Order: used instead when you and the stalker are close relatives, spouses, former spouses, or have a child in common.

Sexual Assault Protection Order: also available, and not relationship dependent, for victims of sexual assault specifically.

Step-by-Step: What to Expect

● Filing a Police Report

- 1 Go to any police department or county sheriff's office — you do not have to go to the one nearest the stalker.
- 2 Ask to speak with an officer and say clearly that you want to report stalking or harassment.
- 3 Bring your documentation: dates, messages, photos, and names of any witnesses.
- 4 Ask for the report's complaint number before you leave, and request a copy if possible.
- 5 Ask about victim assistance resources — many departments have a victim advocate or can refer you to ACADV.

● Getting an Order of Protection

- 1 Go to your county District Court and ask for a Harassment Protection Order petition.
- 2 Describe the most severe incident, plus any other incidents, in as much detail as possible.
- 3 File the petition with the court clerk.
- 4 A judge can issue a temporary ex parte order quickly, often without the other party present.
- 5 The order is served on the other party by law enforcement — keep a copy with you, at home, and at work.
